Dear perspective employer;

Throughout my 25+ years in advertising I have worked with many talented Art Directors, but no one who impressed me as much as Mike Leon. This is an energetic team player with boundless energy and ideas. Someone who truly "gets it," someone who will start finishing your sentences for you. To Mr. Leon, "good is the enemy of great," and he proves this daily with his fresh, innovative concepts.

He is able to interface well on all levels of management and is an excellent communicator, never faltering, but always inspiring confidence. A pleasure to work with, he actively tracks the progress of all jobs until he is satisfied that it is the best that it can be. As a writer, I drew particular joy in collaborating with someone who places as much importance on the copy as I do. It was never a struggle, or battle of wits. Without a doubt, if you are looking for the strongest, most creative and technologically savvy of Art Directors, you are looking for Michael Leon.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
Bruce Grant
